

The Tasks and Duties of Women in the Islamic Society

By: D. Siham Azzouz

28

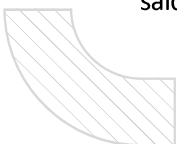

No. 326
March 2021

Some analysts consider women as a half of society, and others say that she is the partner of the man and they also said of her the beauty and the joy of living. But the most beautiful thing about the woman is what Imam Ali (AS) said about her “Woman is Reihana” and what Imam Khomeini (ra) said about her: She is the partner of the Qur’an by making men. Almighty God honored women in Islam and elevated their status, so no society can rise without her.

Imam Khomeini said that women are educators of men, and that is why the happiness and unhappiness of countries are entrusted to women, because with their righteous education they make humanity and their solid education will make the living country. This conscious and profound understanding of the role of women pushed the struggling Iranian women to enter the battlefield and to participate widely in the revolution, and underlined the need to continue the struggle after the revolution and to move society forward, socially, pedagogically and scientifically. The Islamic system needs women and men to build a strong state, just as this state needs women of faith to build effective and strong generations.

Today we are in a great and continuous battle with the enemy, this arrogant and unjust enemy who interferes in the affairs of our Islamic countries and works to sabotage our societies and uses all means of soft war to achieve her goals. The role of the believing Muslim woman here is to raise generations of resistance who oppose this enemy by all means, through scientific, cultural, political and humanitarian jihad, and to prepare and raise generations of true mujahedin to confront the arrogant plans of the enemy.

The Muslim woman in Iran before the blessed Islamic revolution fought patiently and steadfastly, and during her defense of the revolution she made all the sacrifices, so she reminds us here of the steadfastness and patience in the holy Karbala scene and "Sayyeda Zeinab", peace be upon her, as she lost her brothers and children and did not give up, and she stood in the face of injustice with an influential speech that was the reason for the establishment of a school of Sacrifice, patience, and resistance.

The woman in Islam struggles to defend her religion and the rights guaranteed by Islam to be a true participant in the building of the nation, she is the partner of revolution, of jihad and of victory, and she is the mother, sister, wife and daughter, who has a great role to play in raising effective generations to defend their homeland against any aggressor. She played a fundamental role, until the rise of generations of "Mujahedin" and the sacrifice, who gave their soul and their life for Islam and for their homelands, thus they defended the oppressed, and confronted the forces of arrogance.

If the Islamic society is able to educate women according to the Islamic model, women will gain their true status and have a fundamental and solid role in the creation of a cohesive society and a role in the development and construction of a society, resistant to all forms of moral and social decadence

The Encyclopedia of Martyrdom, on which were written names like "Imad Mughniyeh, Qasem Soleimani and Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis", is the witness of these sacrifices with a long convoy of martyrs who watered the earth with their pure blood.

If the Islamic society is able to educate women according to the Islamic model, women will gain their true status and have a fundamental and solid role in the creation of a cohesive society and a role in the development and construction of a society, resistant to all forms of moral and social decadence. Correct Islamic education creates a righteous woman and makes her a basic pillar for raising righteous generations.

This is the real equation to buy into and bet on.

D. Siham Azzouz, Media Researcher/Beirut, Lebanon | siham16fr@gmail.com